

Jimmy Chu, Chairman of Fair Friend Group won 2016 《EY Entrepreneur Of The Year》

Taipei, 18 November 2016

18 November 2016, Taipei – The seven entrepreneurs nominated for EY Entrepreneur Of The Year 2016 gathered in Regent Taipei on 18 November 2016. EY named Jimmy Chu, Chairman of Fair Friend Group, the Country Winner of the Taiwan EY Entrepreneur Of the Year awards.

With over 30 years of devoted business endeavor, Jimmy Chu led the group with his outstanding insights to actively embrace industrial integration and the advanced industry development worldwide. Through vision management, he effectively managed global enterprises to advance to industry 4.0. Mr. Chu will represent Taiwan at the 2016 World EOY awards held in Monte Carlo, Monaco in 2017. Outstanding Innovation, Sustainable evolution – the theme of this year echoed the rise of global corporate social responsibility (CSR) awareness. Enterprises are expected to promote cultural heritage, personnel training and contribute to the society while aspiring to excellence.

Hank Lin, Country Managing Partner of the EY practice in Taiwan, stated that: “The EY Entrepreneur Of The Year is awarded to honor the entrepreneurs’ ingenuity and spirits. Innovation and heritage are the key factors for sustainable growth. We believe the outstanding entrepreneurship and the innovative mindsets are the main driving forces in the growth of Taiwan’s local enterprises. The entrepreneurs are making a significant contribution in building a better working world together.”
